"Biddy, what's the mean temperature of Summer weather in Ireland?" said a cockney to a young Irish lass. "Mane, Sir! There's nothing mane about Ireland—bad luck to yees for a dirty spalpeen!"

A Western paper announces the illness of its editor, piously adding: "Ali good paying subscribers are requested to mention him in their prayers. The others need not, as the prayers of the wicked avail nothing.'

"Don't you think you have a prejudice against the prisoner?" asked a lawyer of a wit-ness. "Very likely," was the reply, "I have caught him stealing two or three times."

A lady had her dress trimmed with bugles before going to a ball. Her little daughter my past course is the index to my future conwanted to know if the bugles would blow when she danced. "Oh, no," said the mother; "papa will do that when he sees the bill."

"Come, Pete," said a merchant to a gentleman of the colored persuasion, "what'll you put that load of wood into the cellar for?" 'In de fuss place, my name is Peter, Sir; secondly, I'se a profeshnal carpet-cleaner and whitewasher; furdermo', I doesn't compete for sich jobs, San !"

What is tame? A gentleman entered a barber shop, when the following colleguy took place : Barber-Any news? Gent-Mr. Stewart is dead, I hear. Barber-Which Mr. Stewart? Gent-A. T. Stewart. Barber (thoughtfully)-Guess he don't shave here. - | Boston Journal.

Thus talks an old farmer about his boys: "From sixteen to twenty they knew more than I did; at twenty-five they knew as much; at thirty they were willing to hear what I had to say: at thirty five they asked my advice, and I think when they get to be forty they will acknowledge that the old man does know some-

An English traveller arrived at one of those comfortable inns in the North of Scotland, and told the landlord he telt unwell, at which the latter expressed his regret. "What medical officer," said he, "have you here?" "Medical officer; did you say, sir?" "I wish to see a officer; did you say, sir?" "I wish to see a officer. An English traveller arrived at one of those officer; did you say, sir?" "I wish to see a physician." "Whaten kind o' a man is he?" "Confound it! I want some medicine." "Weel, sir, we've only twa medicines in this part o' the country-tar for the ourside, and whisky for the inside o' ourselves."

THE IRON MASK .- The following anecdote was related to Charles Sumner by Gen. Cass, and is given in A. B. Johnson's "Recollections of Charles Sumper:"

When Gen. Cass was Minister to France he became somewhat intimate with the then King are willing to be guided by Baltimore quotaof the French. Louis Philippe. One evening tions.

D. F. BRASHEAR, of the French, Louis Philippe. One evening when they were alone, the General requested permission to ask a question. "Ask whatever you please," the K ng replied. "Then," queried the Minister, "can your Majesty tell me anything of the Man in the Iron Mask?"

"Ah," replied Louis, somewhat amazed, "yes, and I will tell you all I know about it."
When I returned from America, immediate ly upon seeing my cousin, Count d'Artois, I. evincing the same curiosity, asked him whether he could tell me anything about the mystery. 'Only this,' replied the Count: 'Once, in rambling through the Tuileries. I found myself in the apartments of Queen Marie Antoinette. Parting the curtains which concealed me from her eyes, I saw her on her knees before the King "In mercy's name," she said, "Sire, tell me who was the Man in the Iron Mask?" cannot tell you," answered Louis XVI., sternly. I learned it from my predecessor, and can tell it only to my successor. But this I will tell you: if you knew who he was, you would be greatly disappointed at the curiosity which he has excited.

Too Much Joking.-Slang is not wit. Neither is the miss spelling of words humor. And we may go even further, and say that the prevalent disposition to present everything serious as well as trifling, in a ridiculous light, is also bad as a matter of morals. Yet there are many people whose sole effort in writing and in conversation appears to be in the direction of what they consider "smartness." That constant trifling with the sad realities of human life; with the serious work of human kind; with the events of the day, and with the character of the living and with the memory of the dead, is lowering the tone not only of interature, but of morals. The world itself is not a huge joke, however some people may so affect to consider it.

Monday night at the Hippodrome, in New York, Dom Pedro being present, Mr. Moody asserted that not even an emperor can save his soul without submitting to Christ. This recalls an anecdote of Peter Cartwright, the revivalist. He was preaching one day, when General Jackson entered the church and attracted, as Mr. Cartweight thought, more attention than he was entitled to, wherupon the preacher lustily sang out: "Who cares for General Jackson? He'll go to hell as quick as anybody if he doesn't repent!"

Or the Improved Method of Playing Croquet. The prettiest and most interesting lawn game ever invented. The players have an additional interest in this game over ordinary croquet, as each one has a flag to secure, making the game far more interesting and exciting. Nothing of Croquet is lost by Vexillo, as the players have curity according to the act of Assembly, and the rules of this Court, and it appearing by affidavit that he is not a resident of the players have all the play that croquet affords with the additional interest of securing their own flags and capturing those of the enemy.

Special attention is called to the INDESTRUCTIBLE CROQUET, with Rubber-face Mallets. A much more scientific game can be played with this siyle of croquet than any other, as the rubber tace on the mallet gives a certain elasticity to the stroke; besides carom shots can be made as in billiards.
